

LOOKING for GRANTS?

- *Casey's General Stores
- *Catholic Charities/Works of Justice Grant
- *Compeer Financial, grants for improving agriculture by investing in Communities; <https://www.compeer.com/investing-in-rural-communities/giving-back/grants>.
- *Daily Bread Grant (not being offered in 2023)
- *Domestic Hunger Grant
- *Elks (donations more than grants)
- *Farm Bureaus, Corn/Soybean/Cattle Organizations (more donations and less grants)
- *Food Banks, many local food banks offer grants to their local partners to aid in getting better food to clients.
- *Foundations in your area (eg. Worthington Area Foundation)
- *Grocery Stores (eg. Coburns)
- *Healthcare foundations (eg. Worthington Regional Healthcare Foundation)
- *Hospital and Medical collection drives (eg. Sanford, donations)
- *Indigenous and Ethnic Specific Ministry Grant Initiative (sounds like could be ending)
- *Kiwanis (donations more than grants)
- *Ministerial groups in your area(donations)
- *Music Groups that give free will donations places (eg. Worthington Chamber Singers)
- *Optimist (donations more than grants)
- *Power and Electric Companies (eg. Nobles 2 Power Partners, Round-Up Grant for Nobles Cooperative Electric)
- *Southwest Initiative Foundation
- *SW MN Opportunity Council (connection to the Head Start and received funds for SMOC via that connection)
- *SW MN Synod Endowment
- *Statewide Health Improvement Partnership (SHIP), this grant supports community-driven solutions to improve healthy eating and active living. You apply for the grant and/or look for groups who have received it and partner with them.
<https://www.health.state.mn.us/communities/ship/index.html>
- *Walmart